

FERPA is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records, both financial and academic. If a student is 18 years or older or attending a postsecondary educational institution, the privacy rights are the students' such that any release of student record information must be done with the student's explicit written/electronic consent except in limited circumstances. Florida Statutes 1006.52, 1002.225 and FIU Policy 108 – Access to Student Education Records also protect this information.

Students may authorize their parent, legal guardian, or other third party, partial or full access to the student's financial or educational records.
